

Nancy Susan Reynolds Awards

Z. Smith Reynolds
FOUNDATION

2010 Call for Nominations • Deadline is June 1

The Nancy Susan Reynolds Awards recognize the extraordinary and uncommon leadership of North Carolinians whose vision, determination, resourcefulness and strength of character have made a difference in their communities or on causes that previously did not have an effective voice.

Three awards will be given at an awards ceremony in November — for Advocacy, Personal Service, and Race Relations. Each award carries a $25,000 prize, including $5,000 to the recipient and $20,000 to nonprofit organizations chosen by the recipient.

Online nominations must be submitted by June 1. Mailed nominations must be postmarked by June 1. Additional information is available online at www.zsr.org.

Nancy Susan Reynolds Awards

WWW.ZSR.ORG • (800) 443-8319

How to Nominate: Anyone except the nominee may submit a nomination. Anonymous nominations will not be accepted. Nominations may be submitted online at www.zsr.org, or nomination forms may be downloaded and mailed to the Foundation. Please go to our website or call (800) 443-8319 or (336) 725-7541 ext. 110 for more information. The website provides additional details about the award categories and past winners.

Criteria for Selection:

- Advocacy – On behalf of people, issues or concerns that otherwise may be without effective voices;
- Personal Service – For people helping other people in extraordinary ways;
- Race Relations – For persons who have acted in ways to bring about improvements in multi-culturalism in a community and served as role models of racial understanding and cooperation.

Eligibility: Nominees must be living residents of North Carolina. They should be persons not typically in the limelight who perform valuable public service. The Foundation is looking beyond traditional business and civic leaders or those people who already have received significant recognition. In the case of joint or collaborative efforts, an award may be shared by more than one recipient. Committees and organizations are not eligible.

Deadline: Online nominations must be submitted by June 1. Mailed nominations must be postmarked by June 1.